GERMANS SHELL OUTER LINES OF WARSAW: NEW TEUTON NOTE IS DRAFTED

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Secretary of State Robert Lansing this afternoon finished the final draft of the new American note to Germany. This note demands a modification of submarine warfare and does not recede in the least from any American contention. The note will go before the cabinet Friday and on Saturday will be cabled to Ambassador Gerard at Berlin and delivered to Von Jagow on Monday. President Wilson's typewriter was heard clicking at the White House late last night and it is understood he personally prepared a tentative draft. Lansing's final draft is based on Wilson's outline.

The Kaiser leaves Posen Friday. It is understood she plans to enter Warsaw beside the Kaiser. Berlin is wildly excited for it is believed a Warsaw victory means the speedy end of the war.

The picture gives two views of "Big Tim."

the agreement and was escorted to the platform amid wild cheers. He made a brief address in which he congratulated the miners and operators for recognizing the nation's interests above their own.

ROOSEVELT ASKS PREPAREDNESS FOR WAR IN S. F. SPEECH

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Theodore Roosevelt today addressed a huge crowd at the exposition, advocating the doctrine of preparedness for war as the best peace guarantee. He demanded universal military training on the Swiss system and cited Belgium as an example of unpreparedness. The Colonel demanded a navy bigger than that of any possible foe. He asserted the pacifists were trying to "China-fy" America and scored the peace-at-any-price advocates. Then he attacked Bryan's thirty peace treaties and said America had been well-nigh criminally remiss in not preparing for war during the last year.

He lauded Goethals' work in building the Panama canal and said the canal doubled the potential efficiency of our naval strength so long as it was fortified and in American hands.

Unfortified, he said, the canal was a menace. He urged the people to remember that the Pacific coast is America's home coast the same as is the Atlantic and suggested that every second year the entire fleet maneuver in Pacific waters.

He admitted that preparedness against war did not prevent war, but said fire departments do not prevent fires.

France, he said, was unprepared for war in 1870 and was crushingly defeated. She was prepared in 1914 and the result is different. He cited the rise of Japan and said that without fighting efficiency all the other national efficiency was merely a house built on sand. He denounced the "abject pacifist" song, "I Didn't Raise My Girl to Be a Soldier." He said the companion song should be "I Didn't Raise My Girl to Be a Mother."

He advocated a regular army of 200,000 men, and said an army of 130,000 men would probably be eventually needed to pacify Mexico.

$10000 BUILDING TO BE ERECTED AT SOUTHEAST CORNER MAIN AND FOURTH

A $10,000 building is to be put up at the southeast corner of Fourth and Main streets by the owner, Mrs. Ella E. Dibble. Fifty thousand dollars was refused for the property one week ago Monday.

Plans for the structure have practically been completed by Contractor J. S. Fluor.

Work on the new building is to start as soon as the tenants vacate the present building. The tenants have been given notice to vacate by August 2.

The lot upon which the building is to be erected has a 27-foot frontage on Fourth street and a 70-foot frontage on Main.

Two-Story Building

The plans call for a two-story building, with a basement.

The building is to be so constructed as to allow of additional stories being added when occasion demands.

It is likely that terra cotta brick will be used, though this has not yet been definitely determined upon.

Handsome plate glass and steel windows will line the entire length of both fronts.

Mrs. Dibble, who has lived in a suite of rooms in the upstairs portion of the building since December 3, 1885, is the widow of Robert H. Dibble, a pioneer hardware merchant of this city, who died in 1907.

Mr. and Mrs. Dibble became engaged on August 3, 1885, and at that time Dibble gave his future wife a deed of gift to the property.

During the many years that Mrs. Dibble has owned the property she has received many flattering offers for it. The corner is considered one of the most valuable in the city.

A week ago yesterday, a local man, acting for an eastern capitalist, made Mrs. Dibble an offer of $50,000 for the corner, which she refused.

Mrs. Dibble has seen Santa Ana grow from its infancy. She has seen the great progress that the city has made and this has given her unbounded faith in the city's future. Her determination to replace the present brick structure with a modern building, rather than sell the property, is entirely the result of her confidence that the future progress of Santa Ana will be even greater than it has been in the past.

The announcement made by Mrs. Dibble is believed certain to act as an impetus to numerous other building projects which have been under consideration in this city for some time.

WARRANT ISSUES FOR ARREST OF MAN WHO HURT MALLICOTE

Today a warrant was issued for the arrest of Lloydie Briesley, 1149 La Moynie avenue, Los Angeles. Briesley is charged with attempting, while driving his automobile, to pass on the wrong side of Harrison Mallicote three miles southeast of Tustin on July 5, and thereby throwing Mallicote to the ground and causing him to sustain several severe cuts on the head as well as a compound fracture of the left leg.

A damage suit is likely to result. Immediately after the accident efforts were made to learn the number of the machine that collided with Mallicote, who was riding a motorcycle. These efforts were fruitless until a day or so ago when L. W. Cummings, a state highway engineer, at Laguna Beach learned the number of the machine that collided with Mallicote.

The number of the machine, according to Cummings, was 136503. This license was issued to Briesley.

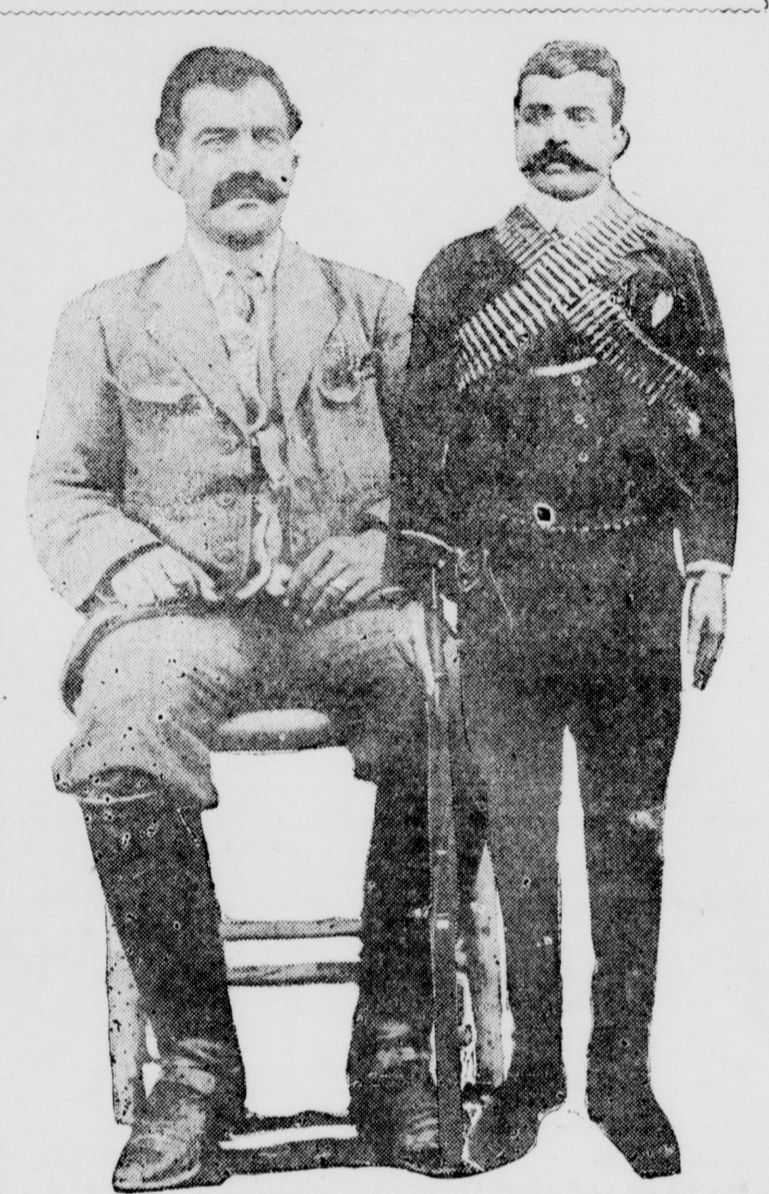

Mallicote is an employee of the San Juan Fruit Company. Andrew Cock, superintendent of the company, headed the efforts to locate the man who caused Mallicote to be injured.

BELOW ARE SHOWN photographs of General Gonzales, the new ruler of Mexico City (left) and Gen. Zapata, the man whom he defeated. Zapata is said to have looted the banks as he marched his men out.

One-time Bandit Gives up Capital He Has Held In Terror for Many Months Past.

Mexico City has been taken again in a battle which lasted several days between the Carranza and the Zapata factions. General Gonzalez (left) marched into the city the other day, according to despatches he had sent out, the Zapata troops having previously evacuated.

General Zapata (right), who, until he took Mexico City, was rated as a bandit, and his troops were in possession of the capital for many months. General Villa left it to them when to moved north. Stories of the evacuation say the Zapata officers looted the banks and private houses as they left.

Mexico City is regarded in a serious condition. Supplies are cut off. There are few Americans remaining. It is reported the Villistas are deserting Naco. There is much looting.

Four thousand additional Maytorena Villistas have arrived at Nogales to assist in the defense. Windows have been boarded and entrenchments prepared.

It is reported General Calles' Carranzistas include a detachment United States army machine gunners.

It is reported at Nogales that General Calles, commanding the Carranzistas, has executed fifty-two Villistas at Cananea for looting. He captured two hundred prisoners.

General Francisco Villa plans to live in San Francisco following the termination of the Mexican war, according to Robert Cornell of Houston, Texas.

Consul Burns of the Carranzista agency at Galveston, today denied the State Department reports saying that the Zapatistas have re-occupied Mexico City. Burns asserts that advances from Vera Cruz say the Zapatistas are fleeing toward Morelos, caught between two Carranzista armies, while General Gonzalez's troops hold the capital.

MYSTERY BLAZE IMPERILS TWO GREAT U. S. WARSHIPS

NEW YORK, July 21.—It is today learned authoritatively that mysterious fires blazed on the destroyer Harrington and the dreadnaught New York in the Brooklyn navy yard yesterday.

Both were extinguished but the vessels were seriously endangered.

There was a similar blaze a few days ago.

Extra precautions have been taken to prevent strangers entering the yards, but this is difficult, as more than 5000 men are employed building the dreadnaught Arizona.

ENGLISH UNIONS O. K. WOMEN CONDUCTORS

HULL, England, July 21.—After arguing the pros and cons of the proposal to employ women conductors on the street cars here for a month, the unions have been compelled to yield to the pressure of circumstances and admit the new labor. It was found impossible to obtain sufficient male labor to operate the necessary cars and the alternate of employing women was the stopping of the cars.

The women will receive $6.75 a week, the same as the men, but the war bonuses heretofore paid to the men conductors will be added to the wages of the motormen, who will be asked to turn the trolley poles for the women.

1 DIES, 20 HURT AS WOMEN AID STANDARD OIL STRIKERS IN WILD RIOT

BAYONNE, N. J., July 21.—The wildest rioting in the history of this section is taking place in this city today.

One person is known to be dead and at least twenty have been seriously wounded in repeated encounters between the Standard Oil strikers and the police.

The dead man is a striker, as are most of the injured.

At noon the sheriff swore in 200 extra deputies, but it is feared even this force will be unable to cope with the situation. It is expected the militia will be called out before night.

Every saloon in the city has been ordered indefinitely closed.

STRIKERS ENGAGE POLICEMEN IN PITCHED BATTLE

The rioting began this morning, when 1500 strikers engaged in a pitched battle with a hundred policemen. There were scores of women in the ranks of the strikers, and these fought even more viciously than did the men.

The strikers charged the police, who fired a volley over their heads, but this seemed only to enrage the rioters the more. A hail of bricks and cobblestones was showered upon the police.

A second volley was fired by the latter, this time firing low. Many of the strikers were wounded in the legs.

MOB BATTERS DOWN DOORS OF FIRE STATION

Wild scenes followed. A body of police arrested a number of the rioters and retreated with them to a nearby fire house, where they barricaded the doors and prepared to resist any attempt at rescue.

The mob charged the fire house viciously, only to be met with streams of water at high pressure from lines of hose in the hands of the firemen.

Though the crowds fell back, they soon rallied and made another desperate charge, and this time they were successful in breaking the doors and rescuing the arrested men.

AMBULANCE ATTACKED IN MAD RIOT OF ANGER

During this second fight Lieutenant Daniel Cody was wounded in the leg. An ambulance was called, which with difficulty forced a way through the crowds. The wounded man was placed in the ambulance. This was the signal for a fresh outbreak and the mob wildly attacked the ambulance, hurling bottles and bricks.

Crowds on the roofs of the houses took a hand in the battle by bombarding the police with anything that came to their hands.

BULLETS WHIZ; AIR IS FILLED WITH MISSILES

In a few minutes the narrow street was a maelstrom of fighting officers and strikers.

Bullets whizzed in every direction, clubs were freely wielded, and a hail of miscellaneous missiles filled the air. Windows on both sides of the street were smashed.

The mayor and police commissioners appeared on the scene, vainly haranguing the crowd in an effort to restore order.

STRIKERS BACK POLICE UP TO FIGHT FOR LIVES

Shortly after noon a patrol wagon loaded with policemen attempted to drive into the yards surrounding the Standard Oil Works. The strikers shot the horses down and a fresh mob surrounded the police, who backed up against a wall, revolvers in hand, prepared for a battle for life.

At this point a band of fifty of the newly sworn deputies charged the rioters, dispersing them like chaff and rescued the policemen.

This morning's outbreak was the third since the opening of the strike when 5000 men quit work.

LET'S CONTRACT TO MAYOR OF RIVERSIDE

Paving of the Garden Grove-Westminster Road, 3.82 Miles, to Cost $10,606

Yesterday afternoon the Board of Supervisors let a contract to Oscar Ford, contractor, mayor of Riverside, for the paving of 3.82 miles known as the Garden Grove-Westminster road. Ford's bid of $10,606.01 was the lowest of eight bids received yesterday, and on the recommendation of the county highway commissioner the contract was let to Ford.

Ford has had several contracts in this county, including the building of the Severns canyon road and the road between Bay City and Sunset Beach. The 3.82 miles of road is to connect Garden Grove and Westminster. The road running west from Garden Grove is to be paved to a point where a turn will be made to the south to meet the road now paved east from Westminster.

The bids received for the job were as follows:

Oscar Ford, $10,606.01; Hart &

Yorba Linda Next

The next road to be let to bids is the Yorba Linda road, which measures 2.50 miles. August 4 was set by the supervisors as the time for receiving the bids.

A permit was granted the Bixby Development Company to cross a county road with a pipe line.

On the petition of the Huntington Beach Company franchises for pipe lines for water and poles for electric power, telephone and telegraph are to be offered for sale.

Cannot Give Answer

A letter has been received by the Board of Supervisors from County Surveyor G. M. Pearson of Riverside in which Pearson states that owing to the fact that the right-of-way across the Seely ranch in the Santa Ana canyon has not yet been settled, he cannot say when Riverside county will start the paving of its road in the canyon to meet the Orange county road. This county wants to do its paving at the same time that Riverside has the canyon closed. Pearson states in his letter that "the stumbling block may be removed at any time." That is, the right-of-way matter may be settled at any time.

A letter was received from the Merchants & Manufacturers' Association calling attention to the condition of the main canyon road at Olive and to some places considered dangerous along the canyon road.

The supervisors will meet again on July 27.

Conclusion Reached

After conferring with the county officers, the Board of Supervisors has reached a conclusion as to what shall be done to relieve the crowded condition of some of the county offices. It has been proposed to move one of the offices to some location in the business section of the city, but that was deemed inadvisable.

It is now proposed to build another room under the stairway of the basement, and in that room the county horticultural and forester will be located. The room at the southwest corner of the basement, now occupied by the horticultural commissioner and the forester, will be fitted up for the surveyor, and the office now used by the assessor's and tax collector's offices, which will not be changed from their present locations. There is a stairway connecting the room they occupy with the basement room that will be added to their quarters.

VACATION PERMANENT IS THE RESULT

Fullerton Tribune: J. W. Battle will quit his job as engineer at the city water plant on the first of August, having filed his resignation with the trustees when they decided it would be impossible to grant the two months' vacation he asked for. Mr. Battle has had charge of the plant since its completion. He wants a long vacation and says his health demands it. The trustees will name a man for the place at their next meeting.

New precinct boundaries for Fullerton were decided upon at the meeting of city trustees held Monday afternoon. There will be eight voting places at future elections—four on the east side and four west of Spadra road.

It is possible that a driver for the fire engine will be hired to give all his time to the job, instead of the present plan of furnishing a driver when needed from the garage next door to the fire house. Trustee Hiltcher is chairman of the committee having this plan under consideration. Upon complaint from one of the fruit packing houses that cars of fertilizer are sometimes left on the sidewalk so near as to make their odor unpleasant for employees of the packing house, the city attorney was instructed to address a letter to the railway company asking that care be taken in spotting the cars to avoid leaving them where the odor becomes a nuisance.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

NOT SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE TO HOLD THEM

Charge of Assisting In Jail Break Falls—Davis' Hearing Is August 12

On the ground that the evidence did not connect R. S. and Lee Bailey with the jail delivery at Newport Beach, Justice Cox has dismissed the charge against the Bailey brothers. The accusation was a serious one, as assisting in a jail break is classed by the California laws as a felony. The brothers were arrested following the escape of three men from the Newport Beach jail. It was asserted that the Bailey brothers broke a lock off a cell door and let the prisoners out.

Attorneys Williams & Rutan and Charles Swanner appeared for the defendants. The beach city officers were unable to produce any witnesses who saw the lock broken off. None was found who saw the brothers going to or coming from the jail. The accusation seemed to rest largely upon the fact that they were friends of the three men who were arrested, and were with them at the beach.

Davis Gives Bond

Constable Eugene Davis of Huntington Beach, accused of assault with a deadly weapon upon Ernest Rentz, whom he had in custody at the time he is alleged to have hit Rentz over the head with a revolver, today gave $1000 bond for his appearance for preliminary examination in Justice Cox's court on August 12. The constable's bondsmen are William T. Newman and W. S. Thomas, both of Huntington Beach.

Traffic Troubles

Motorcycle Officers Davenport and Ballard brought in another harvest of traffic offenders today. Speed and no lights at night are the causes for the numerous arrests. E. E. Buffen is disposed to contest the time taken by the officers. He has pleaded not guilty and wants a jury trial. The officers say he was going thirty-seven miles an hour Sunday afternoon on the Seal Beach boulevard. Buffen is a Long Beach merchant.

Others arrested are: J. E. Thomas, Z. S. Skinner, S. Garcia, L. Delape, F. Schibert, C. H. Richards, P. M. Tanner, P. W. Mayfield, all of Los Angeles; Fred Bixby, Los Alamitos; H. Okana, Garden Grove; O. A. McMillan, Arizona; E. H. Lawrence, Pasadena; J. L. Allenburgh, San Diego; D. W. Nickels, Phoenix; R. D. McCullough, Iowa; F. L. Hamblin, La Habra; Fred Boosey, Irvine; R. ## SWISS FEAR STRANGE BIRD MEANS FAMINE

GENEVA, July 21.—The Swiss papers report that a beautiful bird, strange to Switzerland, which has appeared in limited numbers in the Engadine, has caused apprehension among superstitious Swiss folk. It is traditionally believed that the bird visited Switzerland in 1570 when there was a famine, in 1784, when there was great internal political disturbances, in 1866, when the country was afflicted with pests, and lastly in 1870, during the Franco-German war. So far as known, it has not been seen in Switzerland since then.

Bird students believe they have identified the visitor as the "hombilla garraulus," popularly known as the silk-tailed starling, which is supposed to have its habitat in Lapland.

Suits for All-Year-Round Wear

A large percentage of men prefer medium weight clothes that can be worn all seasons of the year

We find a steadily growing tendency among our customers towards suits that are of medium weight fabrics and conservative as to weave and color—suits that are "good" all the year round and that are not extreme enough to mark them as belonging to any certain season.

That is one reason why our establishment is kept busy between seasons.

Right now we have our full force of tailors busy, for the most part, on these conservative business suits. We carry a splendid line of this kind of suit fabrics—conspicuously good, but inconspicuous as to any certain season.

We are showing an extra large and well selected line of blue serges in all weights, tailored to your measure at

Facts About California

(From L. A. Financial News.)

With the lima beans far enough advanced to give prospect of good growth, estimates of the crop in Ventura county, the largest in the state, are about the same quantity as last year, when 1,500,000 bags of limas were produced. It is stated that there are now on hand 20,000 bags, worth, at present prices, $4,000,000. The average planted this year is practically the same as last year.

An experiment in rice culture is being made by Shasta county farmers with every prospect of a fruitful ending. H. G. White, who owns land four miles south of Redding, has two acres of rice under cultivation. He says it is equal to any in the Sacramento Valley, as far as prospects are concerned.

The Loma Rica ranch, near Grass Valley, Nevada county, has placed an order for the first farm tractor to be brought to that county. The management is carrying on extensive operations in orchardizing and has reached the conclusion that the caterpillar will be more economical than horse-power.

Archie Storie, manager of the Lols, Terra Bella, Ducor and Orris grain warehouses, estimates that the grain crop now being harvested in the territory tributary to these stations will total 250,000 bushels of wheat and barley, Ducor leading with 100,000 bags.

This season's rice crop in the San Joaquin valley will be far above the average. The average yield is thirty sacks an acre, according to the ranchmen's estimates. This year it will probably be forty sacks.

Experimental rice crops planted on forty acres in the Deane colony and on five acres in Merced county, Merced county, are in fine condition, and promise a splendid harvest.

Heavy clay lands west of Delano, in the San Joaquin valley, heretofore considered as of little value, are proving the most valuable as it is splendid land for rice growing.

According to government experts the condition of cotton in California leads all other cotton producing states.

Five thousand cars of canteloupes will be shipped from the Imperial Valley during the five weeks the season lasts.

Rice crop in Yuba county is estimated at $200,000. The acreage is 2400 and the yield 50 sacks to the acre.

Three hundred tons of alfalfa have been shipped from Corning thus far this season.

In Orange and Lemon Groves

Citrus growers in the region of the Riverside Portland Cement Company plant have been awarded damages by the Superior Court against the cement company on account of dust from the plant settling on the trees and injuring the fruit. In January, 1913, an electrical dust catching device was installed at a cost of $100,000, notwithstanding which many claims for damages have been filed. Attorneys for the company who have not announced an intention to appeal from the decision as yet, said yesterday they have chosen to fight the case.

The Zante Citrus Association, which controls a large output of the oranges of the rich district north of Porterville, has chosen officers for the ensuing year. They are: E. E. Graham, president; E. A. Marshall, vice-president; and these, with J. E. Carty, A. J. Davis, Wood Sandridge, S. S. Hough and E. E. Jones, make up the directorate.

The new member, a position he has filled for several seasons.

Valencia proved a profitable crop for Tulare county growers, figures issued by the associations in Porterville showing that the pack for the season averaged $1.80 a box. At this price the net to the grower is $1.30 per box. The total value of the pack this spring will reach practically half a million dollars.

The Yorba Linda Citrus Association, a co-operative, non-profit organization, has petitioned the court for an order dissolving its incorporation. The association has found that it needs a capital stock corporation in order to better do its work. The new corporation will have a capital of $75,000.

San Fernando Fruit Growers' Association has shipped this year up to the first of July, 200 cars of citrus fruits or 181 cars of lemons and 130 oranges with 115 more cars to be shipped, the best year the organization has ever had.

Redlands has shipped 4443 cars of oranges thus far this season, with 215 cars in excess of the estimate made last fall.

Nut Groves and Vineyards

A large delegation of eastern grape growers and winers, headed by Prof. William B. Alwood, president of the International Congress of Viticulture, and Hiram D. Dewey, president of the American Wine Growers' Association, arrived in Riverside Wednesday from New York, where they were welcomed by a committee of prominent California wine men and entertained later at a barbecue at the winery of Charles Stein & Son, at Wineville. During their stay in California they visited the 4000-acre vineyard and plant of the Italian Vineyard Company at Gnatst. They were shown Los Angeles grape vineyards and packing houses about Fresno and will attend the International Congress of Viticulture, the first one to be held in the United States, in San Francisco.

San Joaquin is the first county in California in the production of table grapes. During the 1914 season 3245 cars of table grapes were shipped from San Joaquin county, nearly 500 cars more than were shipped from the second county in the list, Fresno, whose record was 2768 cars.

Third comes Sacramento county with 1411, followed by Tulare county with 799. No other county in the state shipped as many as 200 carloads. The total shipment from the state aggregated 8862 cars. These figures represent the entire movement out of the state and were compiled by the Stockton Chamber of Commerce from data secured from the California Fruit Distributors and the railroad companies.

Since the discovery of arctian water in the west side of Kings county 30,000 olive trees have been planted and it is expected that within the next nine months 30,000 more will be planted. The discovery was made in 1915, and the average of land. Eight wells have been sunk within six months and they have proven inexhaustible.

The California Associated Raisin Company has started a campaign to prevent wine growers from drying raisins that cannot be used for making wine. With the enforcement of the federal wine tax, the California Vine Association and kindred organizations canceled all contracts for wine grapes and advised growers to dry the fruit.

James Madison, vice-president and manager of the California Associated Raisin Company, announces that the shipment of raisins from this state for the first five months of 1915 exceed the average for the first five months for five years back.

On the Bloom ranch near Garden Grove 16 acres of walnuts promise the heaviest harvest ever known. One tree on which the nuts are in clusters of from four to fourteen on a stem carries three to four times an ordinary crop for a season.

Two milk packing plants at Sultano were destroyed by fire this week, causing a loss of $15,000.

Live Stock and Dairy

A large number of brown Swiss dairy cows are being imported in the Toro district, Monterey county. They are to be used on mountain dairies where the cows must of necessity be hardy, agile and good rustlers. Another feature that the mountain dairymen figure on, is the ability of the brown Swiss to fatten after it has acquired its usefulness as a milk producing animal, and sell for a good price to the butcher.

Five hundred thousand pounds of California butter was shipped to Australia on the liner Ventura, which sailed from San Francisco today. In the past Australia and New Zealand have shipped more than 1,000,000 pounds, valued at $220,000, to the Antipodes. It is expected that the demand will increase for the next ninety days.

Miscellaneous Information

The Visalia plant of the San Joaquin Valley Sugar Company, the only beet sugar factory in the valley, started its season's campaign on the first of last month. It is estimated that the output of the factory will be 75,000 100-pound bags of sugar. The campaign will last three months, and 125 men will be employed at the factory, which will have a payroll of $15,000 monthly. More than $125,000 will be paid to the 125 farmers who are interested in growing beets for the factory, most of whom are in the immediate vicinity of Visalia.

California will go into the land selling business on a large scale after August 7, there being 550,000 acres of school lands unoccupied and unclaimed, which then will be opened to entry. These lands comprise the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections in each township. Proceeds from the sales, which will be conducted by Surveyor-General Kingsbury, will go into the state school fund.

To make the high school farm one of the chief show places of the central part of the state and to place it on a practical, self-sustaining basis, are the aims of the new administration of the Kern County Agricultural Station. Conditions of the soil and climate and the equipment now provided assure these plans.

According to the reports of the Tulare Co-operative Poultry Association, 14,000 dozen eggs were handled by the organization during the month of May. Prices were fairly satisfactory and the product was sold on a basis of 21 1/2 cents per dozen for first grade.

FREIGHT RATES GOING TO BE REDUCED

Freight Bureau of Interior Counties Receives Promise of Railroads

SAN BERNARDINO, July 21.—A revision of local freight schedules carrying material reductions on fourth and fifth-class goods from San Bernardino and other points eastward was promised yesterday afternoon by traffic officials of three railroad companies who attended a conference of interior shippers called together by President George M. Cooley of the Interior Counties Freight Bureau. J. S. Smart of Santa Ana represents the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county on the bureau.

New tariffs will be announced in a few weeks affecting rates on carload shipments of fourth and fifth-class goods from this city to points on the coast and the Imperial valley.

Coupled with the new westbound freight rates effective July 15 providing a reduced back haul charge from San Pedro to the interior under schedule "C" with something like 130 commodities, the readjustment of local charges on eastbound local shipments places the wholesaler of this city on absolute equality with Los Angeles shippers.

W. G. Barnwell, assistant freight traffic manager for the Santa Fe of San Francisco; C. W. Luce, freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific of San Francisco, and E. W. Clapp of Los Angeles, also of the Southern Pacific; and General Freight Agent T. M. Sloan of the Salt Lake at Los Angeles, were present at the conference.

NEWSPAPERMEN MAY CAMP AT LAGUNA THIS SUMMER

It is probable that the Southern California Editorial Association will have its summer camp in Orange county. At least, that the camp be held at one of the Orange county beach resorts was the desire expressed by the executive committee of the association at a meeting held at Pine Knot, Bear Lake, Sunday.

The association is considering Laguna beach as the place for the week's camp, which will start about August 15. The summer camp of the newspapermen and their families is an annual affair. Venice has been the place selected for several years past, and the boosters at Venice are anxious to have the association again this year, but the executive committee has decided in favor of Orange county. The executive committee meeting was held during the trip given newspapermen on the "101 miles on the rim of the world."

FRUIT SHIPPER DISAPPEARS

Anaheim Herald: When Earl Gardner of the Gardner Fruit Company left town two weeks ago there were some vague rumors regarding his whereabouts and the possibilities of his return. It now appears that Gardner left before settling for the last car of oranges shipped east and also left a number of bills behind.

Gardner's friends cannot see any reason for his hurried departure as he was building up a nice business and was making money. It is understood that he made about $1600 profit one month on his shipments and those who are interested wonder why he should take this manner of leaving town.

Gardner had been doing business in the packing house belonging to Mrs. T. S. Grimshaw at the Southern Pacific track, east of Los Angeles street. The machinery in the house belongs to Charles Eygabroad and he had leased it to Gardner with an option to buy it if desired. The machinery was the same that had been used by the Independent Fruit Company and had been purchased by Mr. Eygabroad when the Independent Company became insolvent.

Before leaving, Gardner paid off all his bills. He sent a man up to the Anaheim National Bank, where he had an account, and drew out about $300. He also carried an account with a Los Angeles bank but it is not known how much was withdrawn from that place. His wife is still living at the home on South Lemon street and is unable to locate the missing man.

Gardner was owing a number of people in town but his friends do not think that his debts would be so large that he would be unable to pay them in time. He had lost some property a short time ago and it may have worried him so that he decided to leave and make a new start some other place. So far no trace has been found of him.

PAIL OF HOT TAR FALLS LITTLE GIRL BURNED

ORANGE NEWS, July 20: Bernice Gates, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gates, of South Grand street, was seriously burned yesterday afternoon, when a pail of hot tar was spilled over her head, face and arms. Today, though her burns proved not so deep as seemed at first and she rested fairly well last night, she is suffering considerably from the accident. The tar which had been heated for use on a new residence Mr. Gates is building near his present home had been set on top of a stump to cool. It was out of reach of the younger children and it was not thought that Bernice would come near it. The fact that the tar had been cooling nearly two hours probably saved the girl's life.

A jar of water also reposed on the stump, and when the girl tried to get a drink the water would not run from the faucet in the jar and she tried to peer up over the edge of the stump to see if there was any water left. Then she saw the pail and thinking it contained water, she tipped it toward her to see. The scalding liquid poured over her, covering her head and face and dripping to other parts of her body.

In great pain she was hurried to a physician and relieved as far as possible. When the tar was removed from her face it brought most of the skin as well as eyebrows and lashes with it. Part of her hair was so matted that it was impossible to remove the tar. The rest was closely cut away and it will be necessary to cut all of her hair as soon as it is possible to apply the shears.

The girl's eyesight was fortunately not injured, probably because she closed her eyes instinctively when the accident happened. She is bearing her pain bravely and will recover, it is thought.

WAR EVOLVES NEW SLANG FOR GERMANS

BERLIN, July 21.—German slang is being enriched by a number of interesting expressions which have come into use at the front. The aviators, for instance, do not drop bombs—they "lay eggs." Soldiers no longer talk of the aviator-observer and of the pilot. The former is always called Franz and the latter either Heinrich or Emil. From the observer's name a verb has been formed, "franzten," meaning to observe or spy out. From this the derivative "verfranzten" has been formed, meaning to observe falsely or poorly. Thus "eine Sache verfranzten" signifies the rendering of a movement by poor observation.

The projectiles of the artillery, both of the German and hostile armies, bear a number of pet names. The German missiles are called "gifts," "iron gifts" or "old gentlemen." Hostile projectiles are termed from their development of smoke "black sows" or "wooly bears," from the manner in which they land, "chained dogs" or "blind skippers," from their noise, "rowdy Henry" or "trailer wagons," and these that scatter their missiles effectively rejoice in the name of "sprinkling cans."

EMIGRATION FROM DENMARK DECREASES

COPENHAGEN, July 21.—Statistics recently issued show that 2600 fewer persons emigrated from Denmark in the year 1914 than in 1913. Of the total of 6208, 5123 went to the United States.

OPENING THE MOUNTAINS

A movement for securing state aid in building roads and trails, so that more of California's wondrous mountains may be opened up to travel, was definitely started by the party of Southern California newspapermen who were the guests of the Board of Supervisors of San Bernardino County on a trip on the "Rim of the World," the expressive name adopted to designate the top of the San Bernardino mountains.

The movement seems likely to be successful. Among those who enthusiastically concurred in the suggestion were men recognized as powers in the state. Their standing is not the only reason for believing that their efforts will bring about results. They are men who understand legislation, men whose aid upon any state-wide project to be put before the legislature is courted.

It is proposed to adopt some plan that will result in outlining a system of roads and trails that will make all of the great canyons and mountains of the state easy of access. The next legislature will be asked to appropriate money with which to build some of the roads. Year by year these roads will be extended until there are opened up to the world points of scenic beauty that have no rivals on the globe.

While the minds of those who discussed the project on the "Rim of the World" trip were fixed definitely upon the glories of the San Bernardino mountains, in which they then were, Meyer Lissner of Los Angeles and State Senator Lyman King of Redlands both pointed out that the aim of the movement should be for "all of the mountains of California."

In this day of the automobile, when people's hearts are getting closer to the mountains and the sea because of the fact that they see them often, any plan to make the great recreation points of the mountains more accessible will meet with widespread favor. The day when any ordinary automobile driver in any ordinary automobile can safely and fearlessly go into the fastnesses of the great ranges may not be far distant.

And in speaking of the mountains, let us call to mind that our own Santa Ana range is an asset as yet undeveloped. A year ago an expedition went from the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce to the top of Old Saddleback with a view to considering the feasibility of building a scenic road to the summit. That it was a feasible project, that the road ought to be and eventually would be built—these conclusions were reached. However, it was thought best not to attempt the building of the road as a county project at that time. The county was busy building paved roads and concrete bridges, and it was not deemed advisable to get too many irons in the fire.

San Bernardino County has set us an example. It has spent $135,000 on the "Rim of the World," and it counts the money well spent.

No estimate has been made as to how much it would cost to open up our own Rim of the World, but it is a matter well worth considering. If the state does enter upon an extensive plan of improvement and development of mountain roads and trails, is there any reason why the Santa Ana mountains should not be included in the plan?

DISPOSAL OF WASTE IN RURAL DISTRICTS

The sanitary disposal of human waste is recognized as one of the most important problems confronting the modern municipality, the successful solution of which has required the exercise of much engineering skill and ingenuity. But for the rural community, the isolated farmhouse, the small settlement, where sewers and unlimited water are as yet unattainable, what device is there that is practicable, that is at the same time cheap, simple, and easily constructed and operated, that is fly and germ proof, that is adapted to the conditions of rural life, and that farmers and dwellers in small towns can be urged to provide with some chance of success? These conditions are all essential, but they are by no means easily complied with.

That existing methods or lack of methods of waste disposal in rural districts constitute a real and serious danger has been demonstrated beyond question. Hookworm, typhoid, dysentery, tuberculosis, as well as many forms of intestinal parasites are all spread largely through defective methods of disposing of human waste.

Any real or lasting improvement in rural sanitary conditions must be preceded by a radical and permanent reform on this subject. This problem, always urgent, is becoming and will continue to become more important as our rural districts become more densely populated.

Bearing on the problem is the United States Public Health Service bulletin, recently issued, on "Safe Disposal of Human Excreta" by Lumsden, Stiles and Freeman. After a general discussion of the problem and its importance, the various types of sanitary privies so far devised are discussed, the manner of construction, advantages and disadvantages, cost, etc., being considered in each case, with illustrations and working plans for their construction. Directions are also given for converting an ordinary insanitary privy into a safe one, as well as directions for cleaning and for final disposition of the contents. This pamphlet should be widely circulated among rural homes. The problem is the same in all parts of the country. It can be solved. The question is a vital one to our rural population.

Today's Feature Story

[By a United Press Staff Correspondent]

LONDON, July 2 (by mail to New York).—Ben Tillett, the British pacifist, "Mother" Jones, "Bill" Haywood, Charles Moyer and Samuel Gompers, all rolled into one, is organizing another strike in England.

Tillett has conducted hundreds of strikes. He is the one man who holds British labor under his thumb. When Ben Tillett tells British labor to strike, British labor strikes. When he told British transport workers to strike two years ago, British transport workers tied up traffic facilities of London and practically every important industrial center.

Tillett today is organizing the biggest strike he has yet attempted. His latest strike is against the Germans and he is urging every union labor man in Great Britain to "get on the job."

"I'm preaching bloody murder," said Tillett to an enormous crowd of workmen assembled at a London industrial suburb. "By God, we've got to strike and we've got to strike now. I want every ounce of British energy and every ounce of British gold to get behind and push. British capitalists have got to get into the game. They've got to get rid of the idea that war is being waged to give them profits."

"We want ammunition, shells; we want gas; we want every hellish death-dealing device known to war. We want the fighting spirit. We're going on strike against the Germans. If we don't strike now and strike hard there is no use striking. The capitalists must strike with us. If we don't crush the Germans tomorrow there'll be no capitalists. Every man who can't get into khaki can get into the workshops. We're fighting Prussianism; something that has been preparing to murder civilization for forty years. Our fight must not be any kind of glove business. We've got to murder back and murder back as hard as we can. It must be slaughter for civilization's sake. Get busy and let's slaughter."

And so, Ben Tillett, who before the war hated capital like a "Bill" Haywood, fought industrial oppression like a "Mother" Jones, and was transferred his hate and fighting capabilities to the Germans and is telling British workmen from platforms and soap boxes to get into the game.

While Lloyd George, the new minister of munitions, is mobilizing industry, Tillett is mobilizing labor, and to use his own expression, he's preaching "organized bloody murder."

Laborers who refused to listen to members of the British cabinet who have been speaking throughout England of the need of national defense are listening to Tillett. Tillett is one of them and they believe what he says.

Tillett has just returned from Northern France where he saw the German menace, chatted with some of the men who have followed him in former strikes but who are now in khaki, lunched with General French and studied the situation with his own eyes.

"I've learned that there is another meaning to the word 'strike' now," Tillett is telling his audiences in England.

Tillett, however, is telling the government something with no less vehemence. While he is organizing his strike against Germany the manufacturers and capitalists of England must play the game.

"The workmen must be assured that while they are sweating and laboring and dying for their country they are not doing it to fill rich men's pockets," he says. "The government must control the price of munitions, supplies and food if the capitalists will not. The capitalists must be content to make less money and do more and be content to be controlled."

Tillett brought from the front his simple picture of what the government and the workmen must do. While he talked to officers high in the ranks who told him that the British army was handicapped because the workmen in England were hanging back and were not supplying a constant stream of shells.

This made Ben Tillett mad. He told the officers:

"I'm going home to get those shells and other things and if the rich men play the game there'll be no more labor troubles. I've promised to tell the people at home all the truth and I'm going to do it. The British workmen will listen to Ben Tillett. They know he'll tell them the sober truth."

As soon as Ben Tillett returned home he started to tell the British workmen the truth about the situation over in Northern France. Men who know British labor say that labor troubles in England are over. The government has started to tell the rich men what to do. Whether or not by Ben Tillett's advice, it has put a tax on war profits. The money that went into the rich men's coffers is beginning to come back to the government. The price of food is lower. Bread is costing less. British labor is solidly listening to what Ben Tillett has to say and then calmly trooping off to the recruiting stations or work shops. Tillett says he is telling them the truth and they believe Tillett.

FINANCIAL SITUATION REVIEW

By Louis F. Parsons in the Los Angeles Financial News.

The business situation, considered from a local standpoint, still continues inactive and more or less depressed, although it is a fact that we are entering on the last half of the calendar year with brighter prospects, and important conditions seem to have improved but little. Conservatism holds the front of the stage and while all of us are inclined to be optimistic, still, while not retrenching, the business world is timid about new ventures or unexplored fields. It is a most remarkable fact, however, that business is as good as it is, considering conditions which characterize one-half of the civilized world. The suspense over the foreign situation is generally looked upon as the chief factor and may be held responsible for the present inactivity. It was to be expected that in the natural order of things the summer months would be dull, and that some temporary reactions would develop in the security market. But fundamental conditions and a glimpse beneath the surface has convinced men of affairs that improvement is sure to come and they are laying plans accordingly. This confidence in the ultimate result is having a broadening and strengthening effect and greater activity may be expected in the near future.

Iron Trade Improving

The iron trade, always regarded as a barometer of general business, is showing some betterment. Domestic demands are becoming more insistent and foreign trade has looked up very materially. The promise of the largest crops in our history should encourage the railroads to make needed rail and car purchases. With the publication of Germany's reply, the situation should clarify, and a resumption of trade in the better class of shares be manifested. As an eastern broker expresses it: "The broad view is that with the enormous business which this country is getting from war orders, the excellent crop outlook and the ease in money, the foundation is laid for the biggest bull market ever seen. The only question is when it will start, or rather, be resumed. The upswing was well under way when the Lusitania incident upset everybody, but in our opinion the present halt is only temporary and sooner or later the whole list will break into new high ground."

On Local Exchange

Business on the local exchange has been practically nothing during the past two weeks, and yet to my view there are several promising investments in both the stock and bond list.

The Union Oil Company is getting in better shape every day, and the showing their statement will make for this year will be an eye opener to the public generally. There has been considerable buying, almost entirely off board, of Union and its affiliated companies. This buying movement has not been carried on by any particular clique or combination, but is of a desultory nature, and by people who believe the stock is selling much below its real value. I cannot help but feel that a few shares of this stock purchased with new money would show a handsome profit by the first of the year, as I believe the lowest point for 1915 is registered in the present quotations.

Western Union also continues to be a favorite among the knowing ones, but the shares are hard to locate, most holders being in a position to carry what they have and the price at which it might now be bought causes small investors to hesitate. The balance of the local list shows no change.

As to Real Estate

Without doubt the dullness in our real estate market is reflected in every line of local activity, and until that situation clarifies, we can hardly expect any great improvement along other lines. No one can question but what the recent convention of real estate operators held in this city will assist in clearing up our present difficulties, and the stand that the Los Angeles Realty Board has taken in regard to what is termed "land sharks" will aid and restore confidence in Southern California's future. This type of operator piles his trade more or less astutely in every community, and it would seem as if the knowledge gained by experience would lead to even greater activity on the part of our prominent real estate operators to rid themselves and the community of his costly activities. There is no use in endeavoring to gloss over his nefarious operations, nor should he be treated with indifference or toleration. His elimination is not only possible but necessary—not only have towns and cities been injured by him, but as has been evidenced in many communities, the very fundamental and basic factors of business and trade have been undermined. Therefore I say let the good work go on. The Real Estate Exchange has taken the right course. May their stand not be simply a periodical protest for his permanent retirement, but an active, unrelenting campaign of elimination.

All of the above may seem to be foreign to stock and bond markets, but as has been aptly stated by one of our bankers a change in local business conditions is largely predicted upon the improvement in the real estate situation.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Lyric
An all-star cast engages in "The Heart of Cerise," a three-act drama of the stage which is only one of the top notches to be seen at the Lyric theater tonight. This play has been dramatized from the famous book, "The Spitfire," by Mollie Elliott Seawall, and Joseph De Grasse plays a principal role with Pauline Bush, Wm. Clifford, Ray Gallagher and a big cast of Universal stock players.

The other added two-act special feature is "Jane's Declaration of Independence," with Hobart Hendley and Agnes Vernon. Something new in the shape of comedy is "The Panzer Troupe." Polite photo play vaudeville is also being presented, as Manager Knapp says, "is a regular 10 and 15 cent program of the best in moving pictures for 5 cents."

At the Princess
In the eleventh chapter of "The Diamond From the Sky," the $800,000.00 "Flying A" continued photoplay, now appearing at the Princess in this city, unexpected and strange happenings lure one deeper into the mysteries of this most pretentious film production.

Realizing that Esther is the Stanley heiress, Mrs. Stanley plans to have Blair marry her. With this end in view, Blair returns to Richmond, having been guaranteed safe conduct and relief from molestation because of his murder of Doctor Lee.

Hagar (Eugenie Forde) is still in the hospital under the care of specialists who hope to restore her reason. A wonderful and beautiful love has grown up between Esther and Hagar, and there is much sympathy in the natural manner in which each displays this affection on the screen. So, we find Esther, fearful of the world and torn by emotions, further tormented by the designing Mrs. Stanley.

Meanwhile Luke Lovell (played by George Periolat) repulsed by Blair Stanley, is a wanderer in the desert. By a strange fate he comes upon "The Diamond From the Sky" where it was dropped by the bandits after the train robbery. In his delirium of mental torment and physical pain, a huge rattlesnake strikes him, and in his struggle to be freed of the dreadful thing, the heaven-sent gem is again cast into the sand.

Out in this same desert, hunting for stray sheep, John Powell, otherwise known as Arthur Stanley, comes upon the snake-tormented Luke and offers him assistance. There is a dramatic scene when Lovell recognizes his rescuer as Arthur Stanley and threatens to repay Arthur's kindness by exposing him as a suspected murderer. The gypsy's silence, however, is purchased with bank notes, part of the train hold-up lost discovered by him under a rock.

An express company band around the money arouse Lovell's suspicions, but he takes the money, storing away the band for a subsequent expression of his hate. Arthur departs, leaving Luke on the desert where he searches diligently for "The Diamond From the Sky" which he had tossed aside in his delirious moments, but he cannot find it.

As Luke lay unconscious an Indian outfit passed near him, and the squaw, who always walks, that her master may ride, stumbled upon the brilliant thing, nappy that her infant was thus given a new toy.

This is a most interesting chapter, with drama of such definite strength that all the members of the cast are enabled to display wonderful versatility. The incidents of this release precede a tremendous interest in the succeeding chapters as great possibilities are apparent to even the most inactive imagination.

At the West End

Marguerite Clark, the fascinating stage and screen favorite, attains the greatest triumph since her advent in motion pictures in a charming photoplay production of Frances Hodgson Burnett's celebrated romance, "The Heart of Cerise," produced by the Famous Players Film Company. This subject is the latest Paramount release at the new West End Theater.

In the role of Pepita, the title character of this tender romance, Miss Clark has ample and varied opportunity for the display of her inimitable talents. Pepita is a young Spanish country girl who has come to live in Madrid with her brother. At the time of her arrival in the gay metropolis the city is ringing with the fame of the handsome bull-fighter, Sebastiano, with whom all the women are in love. Warned that she, too, will succumb to the spell cast by the heroic matador, Pepita vows that she will not even speak to him should he address her. Subsequently he sees her, falls in love with her, and begins an ardent campaign to win her heart. Haughtily she spurns him, and in her pride defies him with look and gesture, although her heart is breaking with love for him. At last he is wounded nigh unto death in a bull-fight. Then it is that her pride renders, and through her love wins him back to life and strength.

The film is to be shown Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

CLASS MEETING

Baracas Gather 'Round Banquet Table to Draft New Constitution

The Baracas of the First Presbyterian church held a "liven-up-a-bit" party last evening in their class rooms for the purpose of drafting a new constitution.

Attention was first paid to their physical constitutions which were amply strengthened by the abundance of roast beef, baked potatoes, olives, pie a la mode and coffee, applied.

John Fleming was chairman of the supper committee and his efforts were so successful that his services will probably be sought "forever more."

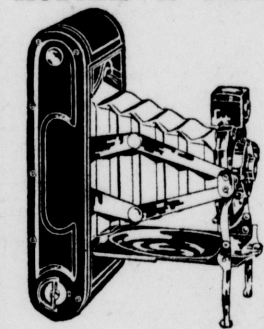

A long table was spread in the Baraca class room and after the repast had been accorded full justice, an appointed committee submitted the new constitution to which several amendments were added.

Among those present were Messrs. H. L. McDermott, class teacher, Clyde Files, Ellis House, Jack Palmer, Arthur Deacon, Robert Fleming, Dixon Tubbs and Irving Iles.

COUNTY W. C. T. U.

Members Enjoy Anaheim's Hospitality at Beautiful Country Home

A very delightful day was spent yesterday by the W. C. T. U. members of the county who were fortunate enough to accept the invitation of the Anaheim Union to attend an all-day meeting at the beautiful country home of the president, Mrs. L. C. Yeoman. A large number responded and all were seated under the wide-spreading palm trees. The day which was unusually warm, made the outdoor meeting all the more pleasant.

The hostess, with the assistance of her committee, did all she could to make the occasion a delightful one for the guests. Mrs. Yeoman presided during the program. One feature of the day, which added greatly to the enthusiasm of the meeting, was the presence of the newly-elected and beloved state president of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, of Riverside. Mrs. Irvine was the unanimous choice of Orange county for the office which she now holds, and it is an inspiration to all to have her present at the social affairs of the county.

Mrs. Irvine, during the afternoon, gave a most able address on "Peace." Mrs. Hattie Doughty, the state secretary, was present and spoke in the interest of the young people. There were several excellent solos by the young people. Mrs. Lizzie Keyes of Riverside, state superintendent of the Medal contest, spoke on that subject and a number of others were introduced and spoke a few words.

Mrs. Yeoman had a surprise in store for those present by presenting each one with a badge on which was the picture of our president, Mrs. Irvine. Mrs. Irvine, who was the picture of our president, Mrs. Irvine, spoke on the work that the unions are expected to take up for the year. At the noon hour, the Anaheim ladies had prepared a splendid dinner for the guests present, which was served in the Lora school house across the street from the Yeoman home. During the noon hour, an official board meeting was held to make arrangements for the county executive to be held in Huntington Beach in the Methodist church on Monday, August 9.

At the close of the afternoon program, all departed thanking the hostess for the delightful day that all had so thoroughly enjoyed. Those who were present from Santa Ana were Mesdames Rogers, Kellogg, Warren, Ward, Stanley, Emerson, Miss Emily Cox and Miss Edith Ward.

Reunion of Old-Time Friends

A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed yesterday at the home of Mrs. W. L. Duggan on South Spurgeon. Mrs. Duggan, who was the hostess, had a large number of guests, including Mrs. S. East and daughters of Salem, Ore. As the ladies lived in Santa Ana some years ago, there were many old friends whom they were desirous of seeing again, and the affair was for the purpose of bringing these old friends and neighbors together for a pleasant visit. Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were charmingly served by Carolyn Haughton, Gertrude East, Dorothy Duggan and Carolyn East, and the time passed pleasantly with needlework and visiting.

Those invited were Mesdames East, Kirk, Minter, Ross, Gardiner, Haughton, Beisel, Trickey, Shoemaker, Darnell, Mitchell, Merigold, A. B. Gardiner, McPhee, Pendleton, Grey, Mateer, Schrock and Misses Carolyn Haughton and Gertrude East.

Independent Study Club

The Woman's Independent Study Club will meet with Mrs. Annie McGaffey, 1110 West Pine street, Thursday afternoon, July 22, at 2 o'clock. The subject for discussion will be "The Women of the Future." Visitors are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Y. W. F. M. S. Meeting

The July meeting of the Young Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church held Monday evening with Mrs. Fitz of 301 South Birch street, was well attended.

The program was prepared by Miss Irma Lee, upon the subject of "Children's Work at Home and Abroad." Misses Cora Craig, Hattie Anderson, Cynthia Scalapamp and Mrs. Lee took part in the program and Miss Fern Smith sweetly sang an appropriate selection.

After the program a short business session was held and a committee appointed to arrange for the program of the next meeting, the annual mite box opening.

Mrs. Lee and Miss Smith of Santa Ana and Miss Scalapamp of Iowa were welcome guests of the society. After adjournment delicious fruit and wafers were served by the refreshment committee.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Miscellaneous Shower Compliments Charming Bride-To-Be

One of the prettiest showers of the season was given yesterday afternoon by Miss Lucy Hill, assisted by her sister Miss Viola, who entertained in honor of Miss Grace Makowsky who will become the bride of Mr. Hugh Proctor of Coachella next Wednesday. The attractive home had been decorated with a profusion of red roses and shasta daisies and appropriate entertainment merrily whiled away the hours.

The first part of the afternoon was devoted to the hemming of tea towels for the charming honoree and, later, all joined in a clever game of romance.

Miss Makowsky was then the center of attraction in a musical game. Lovely gifts had been hidden throughout the rooms and the hunt to which the bride-to-be was assigned was aided by bridesmaids in the piano music, as she neared the hidden packages.

The shower included a wide variety of beautiful and useful articles and after these had been duly inspected and admired, the hostess invited her guests into the dining room where a delicious collation was served.

Strands of tiny red hearts were draped from the chandeliers to the corners of the room and a basket of fragrant red roses graced the table where red shaded candelabra cheerily harmonized with the chosen color motif. Tiny gilded wishbones, to which two hearts, bearing the names of the prospective bride and groom were anchored, marked each plate as favors.

Among those enjoying this delightful affair were Mesdames Carl Gannett, Kate Hendrickson, John Newcomer, Clyde Flower; Misses Grace Makowsky, Irene Catland, Lillian Walker, Edna McMurphy, Alberta Black, Hazel Shallenberger, Henrietta King, Alice Makowsky, Mary Hallmark, Dorothy Harding, Lucile Bersery and Ruth Visel.

CHECKERBOARD OF WAR MAN OF LOS ANGELES TIMES ON BATTLEFIELDS OF EUROPE

Harry C. Carr, author of the popular and extensively read "Checkerboard of the War" articles in the Los Angeles Times, who is now in Europe studying the war situation and obtaining first-hand information relative to the great conflict, will shortly commence the publication in the Times of a series of accurate, impartial and graphic descriptions of the gigantic struggle.

Mr. Carr is widely known as a brilliant, versatile writer, and a close student of military affairs, and his articles written from various European cities undoubtedly will be a valuable contribution to the literature of the war.

It is not Mr. Carr's intention to visit the trenches of the contending armies, but his articles, which will be a striking feature of the Sunday issues of the Times for several weeks to come, will deal with every aspect of the war.

The military, naval, political, and commercial angles, as well as its grim humor, will all be depicted in Mr. Carr's inimitable style.

COLUMBUS, O., July 21.—Education, persuasion and finally compulsion are the methods being used by the Columbus smoke inspection department to abate the smoke and soot nuisance. ## HIS CHASE AFTER HAT COSTS HIM LEG

NEW YORK, July 21.—His escaping straw hat cost Alfred Ruzzo his right leg. Alfred, who is 25 and lives at No. 25 Stanton street, was standing on the side step of a southbound Second avenue car in charge of James Ferguson when his hat blew off near Thirty-eighth street.

He leaned out to catch it as it fell, dragging one foot on the pavement as the car slowed down. His clutch failed, he fell and his right leg went under the wheels. Patrolman Hiles summoned Dr. Traut of Bellevue, who took Ruzzo to the hospital.

SAYS ABOUT THIS GREAT WORK:

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL
The Curtis Publishing Co.
Philadelphia
Edited by Edward W. Bok

"Why I like this illustrated edition of the Bible is because everything about it has been well done and seems to have been done in the right spirit. The Book itself has been approached by the annotator with reserve and intelligence, and by its artists with sympathy and knowledge. It has not been made into a meaningless picture book. The pictures here serve a distinct purpose. They enrich the text, but they do more; they intelligently explain it, and many a hitherto obscure passage will assume to thousands a new meaning through these eye-teaching pictures. Popularizing the Bible is a risky experiment in the hands of many, but it has been made a splendid achievement in this case."

BIRCH PARK BAND CONCERTS ARE POPULAR: GOOD PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR TONIGHT

This summer's band concerts at Birch Park are proving more popular than ever.

"Generally speaking the department of the audiences is good," said Director W. Frank Harris today. "There are a few who forget to refrain from conversation during the numbers, though the majority attend the concerts to hear the music and do all in their power to maintain quiet."

"We are constantly hearing expressions of appreciation. Santa Anans give credit to the city authorities for providing the entertainments and to the members of the band for their excellent work."

"The fact that two numbers on every program are request numbers is meeting with popularity. Two request numbers appear on tonight's program."

The program for tonight follows:

1. March, "Caesar's Triumphal"..... Mitchell
2. Waltz, "Danube Waves (Request)"..... Ivanovitch

THE HAGUE, July 21.—The Dutch Parliament is contemplating a law which would call to the colors all men who during the last twenty years have been exempt from service for one reason or another. According to the supporters of the measure, it is planned to call the younger men to the colors at once, while the men as old as forty years would be called upon by the end of next year—when they fondly hope —the war will be over. Military service in the Netherlands is not popular, and such a drastic law, it is believed, would create a difficult situation.

$500 JUDGMENT FOR SLANDER TO BIRD AGAINST MISS HUBER

Judge Calls Attention to No-Motive Feature, But Says Evidence Convinces Him Woman Gave Letters To Boys For Delivery

This afternoon at 2:45 o'clock $500 judgment for slander was given P. I. Bird of Orange against Miss Bertha Huber of Orange.

Judge Thomas declared that while no motive had been disclosed, the evidence convinced him beyond a reasonable doubt that Miss Huber gave two letters to two different boys for delivery to two women at Orange.

"Mrs. Wilson, did you instigate the writing of these letters?" asked Attorney Clyde Bishop when Mrs. John Wilson of Orange was on the witness stand today.

"I did not," was the reply. With this question and answer there was touched upon in the trial of the slander suit of P. I. Bird against Miss Bertha Huber a phase of the case that as yet has not been explained. What motive did Miss Huber have in sending the letters?

Miss Huber did not know Bird by sight until after the complaint was filed. She so testified. Bird on the witness stand said that he did not know Miss Huber by sight until after the letters were sent, and there was no ill feeling between her and his family. Miss Huber declared that she had no motive or feeling against Bird further than that she believes it "unjust that he should put this suit upon her."

No motive for the sending forth of letters to various people at Orange has been shown. Miss Huber, accused of writing and causing slander letters, and Bird, chief target of the communications, were strangers to each other.

Miss Huber has been living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson. She came here from Texas in 1913, remained at Orange for several months, went back to Texas, and then in March, 1914, returned to Orange. She stated that Mrs. Wilson is not strong and she has been assisting in the household.

On Two Witnesses

The case is almost at an end. Attorney Bishop has put on a number of witnesses who received defamatory letters. The strength of his case depends largely upon the testimony of two boys, Dietrich Dorston and Willard Woodward. Dorston said he was given a letter by a woman he identified as Miss Huber. This letter he was directed to deliver to Mrs. Kate Kaiser. The Woodward boy testified that he was given a letter to deliver to Mrs. N. P. Spray, who identified Woodward as the boy who handed it to her.

The boy was asked to pick the woman who gave him the letter. He looked all over the room, but could not find her. Miss Huber sat inside the rail, and the boy's eyes wandered past her over the faces of the spectators. Later Miss Huber was asked to put her hand back, and then the boy, who had been out of the room, pointed her out. He said the woman who gave him the letter had no hat on at the time.

This morning Attorney H. C. Head for Miss Huber put Leo Allison and Maude McCutcheon on the stand. They said they were in the court room yesterday when they saw Mrs. Marie E. Firman nod her head and in that way prompt the Woodward boy to pick out Miss Huber. Mrs. Firman has figured prominently in the case. She was one of two detectives hired by Bird to find out who was writing the letters and to get evidence upon which a damage suit could be brought.

Margaret Sharp, a little girl, was called to the stand. She said that some woman had given her a letter to take to the telephone office. She could not identify Miss Huber as the woman who gave her the letter.

Attorney Head fired several shots today in an effort to break down the testimony of these two boys. Several witnesses were called, and through them the reliability of the boys was attacked.

John Wilson and his wife were shown the letters on which the slander suit was based. Each denied ever having seen any of the letters before and they denied knowing anything about them.

Mrs. Mae A. Dennis testified that she got a letter out of her mail box. It was postmarked San Diego. The letter was one of those on which the slander action is based. Mrs. Dennis said she did not know who sent the letter.

About 11:30 o'clock Miss Huber went on the stand in her own defense. The woman denied writing the letters, having anything to do with them, or knowing anything about them. She said she never was in San Diego.

Is Sent to Jail

Today Manuel Garcia withdrew his plea of not guilty to assault with a deadly weapon with intent to murder Acencion Medina at El Modena and pleaded guilty to simple assault. Judge West sent him to jail on a sentence of six months. Garcia was once tried on the felony charge, and the jury disagreed. Attorney Wallace W. Davis appeared for him. Medina was shot with a revolver. The evidence showed that Garcia's quarrel was with another man.

Local Stock Market Dull

Business on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange the past week continued, as in the past several weeks, remarkably dull. True, there were spurts in some of the low-priced securities, but general conditions remain unchanged.

Trading in the oil list were confined to Amalgamated and Union, and there was the change of a few shares of Western Union and United, but the general list was quiet and dull.

In the industrials Home Telephone and Los Angeles Investment were the securities dealt in, the latter furnishing the bulk of the trading.

The bank list was dull. The only activity was seen in the mining list, Big Jim and Consolidated Mines being the features.

As said, general conditions were unchanged, regular summer dullness having settled down on trading. The exchange will be closed today and Monday, a three-day holiday due to the fourth of July.

Big Woolen Mills Open

The plant of the Golden State Woolen Mills Company, the only one of its kind in the state, opened the doors of its factory at Long Beach, Thursday. Invitations were extended city officials, the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles and Long Beach and the press, all of which had representatives. Most instructive and interesting demonstrations of the various processes of washing, dyeing, carding, spinning and weaving were given. Blankets, flannels and robes will be manufactured. The plant cost $150,000.

Decides to Pay Certificates

Ever since the Northern Electric Company, parent corporation of the Vallejo and Northern, went into bankruptcy, the sum of $100,000, which was awarded the Reed Orchard Company as damages for right of way and which was deposited by the clerk of the court in the Bank of Yolo county at Woodland, has been in litigation. Last week the attorney for the bank appeared in the United States District Court in San Francisco and announced that the bank had decided to pay the certificates and would seek a remedy in a suit at equity against the railroad officials.

Banker-Farmer Conference

One of the strongest forces at work today for better agriculture and country life is the bankers of the United States. ## SEASON'S MARKS ARE BROKEN ON ORANGE SALES

Olive Heights Atlas Brand Sells In Philadelphia At $4.35 a Box

Advices from Philadelphia today by the Olive Heights Citrus Association, a member of the Orange County Fruit Exchange, are to the effect that three of this house's pack of oranges were sold today at the highest prices recorded this season. Atlas brand, which is extra choice fruit, sold at $4.35 a box; Hector at $4.05; and Trojan at $3.80. Higher prices have been received this season for fancy packs but the price received by the Atlas brand is the highest so far recorded for extra choice fruit.

Hewes' Packing House has received word that one car of Goldfinch lemons was sold at $3.50 on 300 and under sizes and $2.75 on 360 sizes and under. The average received was $3.15 per box. The lemons were all choice.

Boston reports a stronger market on oranges and lemons.

New York reports a higher market, with a good demand for oranges at prevailing prices and a much stronger market on lemons.

Both St. Louis and Pittsburg report stronger markets on lemons and oranges.

RUSH DYNAMITE TO RESCUE OF STEAM SHOVEL

Two hundred pounds of dynamite were rushed from Orange last night to Serra to be used in unearthing a big steam shovel which was buried yesterday in a huge gravel slide on work which is being done on the state highway.

With the burying of the steam shovel yesterday 200 men were thrown out of employment as well as 100 teams. The entire grading outfit of Brasher and Burns has been temporarily tied up.

Operations to unearth the steam shovel are being rushed. It is not known how long it will be before the grading outfit can resume work.

Incidentally one of the contractors told William Kogler of Orange, who delivered the dynamite, that it would be two years before the section of state highway south of Serra would be opened for traffic. The contractor told Kogler that under the terms of the contract the road bed would have to stand for one year before being covered with concrete.

Parsons Opens Brokerage Office

Louis F. Parsons, who for the past eight years has been manager and assistant secretary of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, and who resigned several weeks ago, will engage in a general stock and brokerage business with offices at 602 H. W. Helman building and where he will welcome his hosts of friends.

Thursday afternoon Mr. Parsons was elected a member of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange by the unanimous vote of the members. Mr. Parsons, it should be said, is one of the best posted men in oil, mining, industrial and public utility stocks in California, and information regarding these securities he will be glad to impart to his friends, as also all others as he did while manager of the exchange.

With the retirement of Mr. Parsons from the exchange the office of manager, which he so creditably filled for eight years, has been abolished and the business of the exchange in the future will be conducted through committees.
